"... another magical vintage for this cuvée. All Cabernet Sauvignon from hillside vineyards on the eastern side of Stags Leap, it offers a vivid purple hue as well as extraordinary notes of cassis, black raspberries, violets, camphor, and spring flowers ... flawlessly balanced on the palate and has ultra-fine tannins, a seamless, elegant mouthfull, and a great, great finish. ..." – Jeb Dunnuck

"... erupts from the glass with powerful scents of creme de cassis, blackberry pie, and fruitcake, leading to suggestions of wild blueberries ... the concentrated, full-bodied palate does not disappoint, featuring very firm, beautifully ripe tannins and a lively line to frame the generous fruit, finishing long, and layered" – Lisa Perrotti-Brown
